- Raising funds to support health, community empowerment projects and disaster recovery in Nepal.
- Advocating to the Australian Government in support of Australia's bilateral aid program in Nepal.
- Enabling Australian volunteers to serve in Nepal.
- Monitoring and evaluating impacts and outcomes of partner projects in Nepal.

Likely Developments

INF Australia will continue to receive funding of $600,000 – $700,000 annually through ANCP. The exact amount will vary as determined in a ratio with our own public fundraising and development expenditure in Nepal.

INF Australia receives $300,000 annually from a major donor for the support of the zero-leprosy project, run by INF Nepal through its health and hospital services. The funding received this year is the first instalment of a 5-year commitment towards this project.

Ensuring our fundraising and recruitment efforts in support of health and hospital; community programs; and disaster recovery projects in Nepal will remain a high priority, both to ensure predictability and reliability of funding from the Australian government, major donors and supporters, and to ensure that INF Australia does not become overly reliant on a single source of income.

To this end, INF Australia will continue to invest in the capacity of the Australian team to support and manage international projects, to ensure accountability and oversight for all our programs, and to engage effectively with the Australian community to raise awareness and funds for the work of our partners in Nepal.

Review of operations

Our accounts for the 2023 financial year show a deficit of ($88,917) (2023: deficit $186,370). Expenditure directly related to our work in Nepal totalled $1,429,622 (2023: $1,202,123). The deficit resulted from additional unplanned project expenditure relating to prior year underspends being carried forward; contributions to disaster recovery efforts from the Jajarkot earthquake in November 2023; and program volunteer expenses

International Nepal Fellowship Australia maintained its commitment to supporting its three main thematic areas of focus:

1. INF Australia increased its support to its primary partner for the zero-leprosy project being overseen by INF Nepal's health and hospital work. The primary focus of this project is the community outreach activities in areas of high prevalence such as Banke.

2. INF Australia maintained its commitment to support health and community development programs through its partners in Nepal. This was achieved through the receipt of $764,481 (2023: $725,148) from the Australian NGO Cooperation Program (ANCP) from the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT); the generous support of many donors; and through the utilisation of designated program funding reserves.

3. INF Australia supported the disaster recovery work of its partners in Nepal, in particular raising funds for the communities impacted by the November 2023 earthquake in Jajarkot and West Rukum.

INF Australia continues to invest in staffing within the Australian office, to enhance the organisation's capacity for project management, including monitoring and evaluation, by engaging several technical expert consultants to support the Nepal programs team.

Volunteer services

As well as sending funds to support partner organisations, INF Australia enables Australian volunteers to serve in Nepal, using their professional skills, gifts and experience to support the work of partner organisations. Through the year, INF Australia has supported Ming Poon as an advisor in leprosy management and treatment; Caryn Kneale as a nutritionist in chronic disease and palliative care within Green Pastures Hospital and Peter Kneale within Pokhara Study Centre.

Project funding and institutional capacity strengthening

INF Australia's vision (shared with the other organisations in the global INF family) is for "life in all its fullness for Nepal's poor and marginalised people and communities". Over the last financial year, five of INF Nepal's Community Development projects came to an end with the completion of their project cycle. These projects are Jumla WEAL (Women Empowerment and Livelihood), Rolpa EDUCATE (Economic Development of Underprivileged Communities through Agricultural and Technological Empowerment), Kalikot EWGWL (Empowering Women and Girls through WASH and Livelihood), POWER Phase II (Promotion of Women Empowerment and Rights and Targeting to Rural Women), and Bajura CCAL (Climate Change Adaptation for Sustainable Livelihood) which significantly contributed to the economic stability of individuals and groups through climate resilient agricultural practices and livelihood interventions, improved health security and community stability through inclusion of women, persons with disabilities and those living in poverty, reduction of discriminatory practices and gender based violence.

INF Australia continued support for INF Nepal in the Jumla district with a new project ENABLE (Empowering Women, Nurturing Abilities, Building Livelihood and Enhancing Inclusion) and maintained support for Rolpa District through the new LIFT Project (Livelihood and Inclusive Empowerment for Transformation). New phases of Kalikot EWGWL and POWER projects were supported which will continue for a further two and three years respectively with the focus on climate resilient agriculture practices, linking farmers to the market, inclusion, and empowerment of persons with disabilities.

The Towards Zero Leprosy Strategic Initiative Project was officially launched last year with a goal to reduce the prevalence rate of leprosy below 1 per 10,000 population in INF Nepal working areas. We continued our support to three Leprosy Patients at Ananda Niwas located in Green Pasture Hospital providing much needed accommodation, food, and medical support.

INF Australia supported strategic partners Welfare Associate for Children Tikapur (WACT) to implement the Improving Child and Adolescent Wellbeing through Community Partnership (ICAWCP), Community Organisation Networking and Collaboration for Transformation (CONECT), and Climate Change Integration projects in Kailali District. INF Australia also supported Shanti Nepal to implement the Community Transformation Project in West Rukum.

One of the key priorities of INF Australia is the capacity strengthening of local partners to foster locally led development. We provided funds to five partners in Nepal through the ANCP funded Nepal Partners Capacity Building Project in their identified areas of needs to enhance their abilities in the areas of Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E), technical capacity of staff, increased organisational competence and quality of documentation. We also provided support to INF Nepal to support their strategic initiatives in the Community Health and Development Projects and Communication department.

In November 2023, an earthquake of 6.4 magnitude struck mid-west Nepal leading to widespread loss of life and property. INF Australia, in collaboration with Asal Chhimeki Nepal, INF Nepal, Shanti Nepal and Elijah Counselling and Training Centre (ECTC) provided immediate relief materials, and psychosocial care support to the victims of the earthquake.

We continue to support three small partner organisations (MILAP, Mahila Milijuli, Sarwangin Sewa Samaj (SSS)) based in Nepalgunj, Banke and ECTC based in Lalitpur which align to our values and strategies.

INF Australia receives support from the Australian Government through the Australia NGO Cooperation Program (ANCP) for the work we undertake in Jumla, Rolpa, Kailali, Kalikot and West Rukum, and the POWER Project.

16. Non-monetary gifts and donations

The work of INF Australia is supported by a large number of volunteers each year. The contributions from volunteers, through board and sub-committee members, IT Management, Policy development, general administration and volunteers serving in Nepal mean that INF Australia is able to deliver a greater proportion of cash donations directly to field projects. The donated services of specific volunteers have been valued using DFAT guidelines and are recognised in the financial report as "Donations and Gifts – non monetary".

During the year ended 30 June 2024, 777 (2023: 307) volunteer hours were provided to INF Australia at a commercial value of $56,100 (2023: $20,865).

In addition, INF Australia seeks to demonstrate the value of the non-financial contribution provided by INF Australia's volunteers in Nepal who serve in technical advisory and training roles. This has been calculated by comparing an estimate of their earning power in Australia to the volunteer allowance they receive in Nepal, and is summarised in the table below.

Non-financial contribution in Australia	56,100	20,865
Non-financial contribution in Nepal	218,039	219,705

Independent Audit Report to the members of International Nepal Fellowship (Australia) Limited

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial report.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the responsible entities.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the responsible entities' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
